

Grid Activities in New Zealand

Orlon Petterson

College of Science, University of Canterbury

orlon.petterson@canterbury.ac.nz

Presented here is an overview of developments in Grid computing in New Zealand, with a focus on the development of a possible tier 2 site for processing CMS data from the LHC and the arrival of KAREN (Kiwi Advanced Research and Education Network), New Zealands new high speed network.